No, this is not part of the touring Vatican Collection—this piece entitled "The Delivery of the Keys" by Pietro Perugino is a fresco from the Sistine Chapel painted in 1482. Yes, the photocopied reproduction is awful, but you get the general idea.

Vatican Collections Tour

The Vatican Collection is NOT coming to Vancouver. This amazing exhibition of 237 works of art from the Vatican ranging from Greek sculpture of the 5th century BC to contemporary works by Andre Derain and Henri Matisse is touring North America, and will come no closer than San Francisco so one of the best ways to see it will be to join Cap's educational tour to San Francisco November 24-27. Cap and four other colleges have organized this tour which will be led by Dr. James Russell, Professor of Classics and specialist in Classical Archaeology at UBC. As well as guided tours of the Vatican Collection, the trip will include a bus tour of San Francisco and plenty of free time for

Steer clear of Tow zones

Look out! It's Tow-away time again starting THIS WEDNESDAY, so if you want your car to be where you left it when you go back to get it, park it in a Legal parking space. Tritow will be strictly enforcing the parking regulations (and take it from an experienced person—they are FAST. All it takes is 30 seconds and hey presto, you're a pedestrian.) If, in spite of this warning, the unenviable should happen to you, this is the procedure for getting your wheels back:

1. Call Tritow at 685-8181 and make arrangements either to have someone meet you at the storage compound or to have the driver pick you up outside the North Cafeteria to take you there. (Note: The compound is now located at 250 Lloyd Ave.)

2. Cough up the cash or credit card (VISA and MASTERCARD now accepted—no cheques). The fee is $35 plus $5 per additional day storage.

Finally, if there is some good reason why you should be parking in restricted areas (i.e. physical handicap), contact the Facilities Supervisor at local 309.

If you didn't read that

We'll give you one more chance to discover that the Tritow storage compound has again moved—it is now at 250 Lloyd Ave. (which is about where it was before they moved it to Dollarton Hwy.) Lloyd, in case you are wondering, is the street that runs parallel to Pemberton Ave. one block east.

Knowledge Network info

Do you need some information on the Knowledge Network? Program schedules and brochures are available from Joy Smith in Credit Free, but for more complicated questions the man you want to talk to is our Knowledge Network liaison, Ted Kingan. In order to make sure that people can get a hold of him for consultation, he has set up office hours on Thursdays from 1:00 to 4:00 in A102. Go there or call him on local 440.

Gilbert steps down

On Thursday, September 29th, the ACCC-CSB (Association of Canadian Community Colleges - Canadian Studies Bureau) will be holding a B.C. Regional meeting at Langara which members of the College who are interested in Canadian Studies are invited to attend. Of particular interest to us is the fact that Reid Gilbert, who has been a member of this committee for some years, is stepping down and therefore there is a spot on the committee to be filled. The meeting will begin with a luncheon and then an information meeting, and the election of two B.C. representatives for the national advisory committee will take place. For more information call Reid Gilbert, local 487.

sightseeing. The tour leaves on a Thursday morning and comes back Sunday night, and the cost, including airfare, accommodation and some other expenses is $499 per person. For more information or registration call local 325 RIGHT AWAY.

Film course studies audio

From Charlie Chaplin movies accompanied by a theatre organ-player or even an entire orchestra to rock videos of David Bowie, the techniques of merging sound and image on film have undergone a fascinating evolution. If you would like to study that evolution and the techniques of audio in film and video production, the Credit Free course "Sound and Image" which starts Sept 27 is for you. Jim Bizzochi, filmmaker and Peter Thompson, audio producer will be teaching the 4 session course and looking at such topics as "silent" films, the introduction of synchronized soundtracks, background musical scores, the use of sound effects, film musicals, styles of dialogue and narration, the influence of rock 'n roll on film and the development of rock videos. The course runs on Tues. evenings, 7:00 to 10:00 pm and costs $75. For registration info call Credit Free—for details about the course content contact Media Resources, local 248 or 251.

Around town info

Do you have legal questions about such topics as separation, divorce, small claims court, debts, wills or landlord-tenant relationships? The B.C. branch of the Canadian Bar Association has a free phone service called "Dial-a-law" which has pre-recorded tapes on 75 common legal topics including those mentioned above. In Vancouver the number is 687-4680; outside Vancouver the service is free to anyone in B.C. by calling 112-800-972-0956.

Soccer season shaping up

Last year the Capilano College Blues Soccer team won the Totem Conference championship, and this year they are off to another great start by sweeping the college North West Classics Soccer tournament in Washington with four straight victories. Neatly put in their place by the Blues were Glendale College of Los Angeles, Lane College of Eugene Oregon, Evergreen College of Auburn Washington and Portland College from Oregon. We all wish more of the same for Coach Joe Iacobellis, Lloyd Symmons, Jim Gardner, Glen MacDonald, Graham Coates, Roger Masdis and the rest of the team in the coming season.

Check out the Fitness Centre

The Fitness Centre is expecting an even busier schedule than last year with fitness clubs, weightlifting, aerobic exercises and much more on the fall agenda. The Centre will be open from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm Monday to Friday and available there are full shower and sauna facilities, exercise area and lockers which can be rented for $4 per year. Here are some of the services which you can take advantage of in 1983/84.

FITNESS EVALUATION - Personal fitness evaluations and prescribed exercise programs are available on request—call Joe Iacobellis at local 320. This is free for faculty, staff and students.

PRE-SKI FITNESS - This popular program will be held in the evenings—consult the Credit Free brochure.

FITNESS CLUBS - The "500" mile club for runners and joggers is back. Run 500 miles in a year and receive one of their prestigious t-shirts. Anyone interested in starting other clubs contact Joe.

WOMEN'S WEIGHTLIFTING CLUB - Women interested in joining this club don't have to know anything about using weights—they will teach you. New members welcome.

AEROBIC EXERCISES TO MUSIC - Of course this program is underway again. Classes will be held Monday and Wednesday, 1-2 pm, and Tuesday and Thursday, 12-1 pm. The fee is a very reasonable $5 for 12 weeks and appropriate exercise strip is required. Both females and males are encouraged to participate. For info call 320.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

The Association of Canadian Community Colleges is pleased to announce that it will again be operating its popular Open House Canada student exchange program, which is funded by the Secretary of State.

The ACCC-Open House Canada program is designed specifically for groups of 15 FULL-TIME community college students who, in company with a faculty member, will exchange with a college in another region of the country. All participants must be Canadian citizens or landed immigrants. Under the program the ACCC pays all travel costs for participating students and faculty.

In order to better understand the region visited, participants will be hosted by, and in return will host, the student with whom they are twinned.

The principal basis for assessing applications will be a judgement of the educational content and viability of the day by day program outline submitted by each applicant college.

While it is anticipated that the majority of exchanges will be of 7 to 10 days duration, applications are encouraged from colleges intending to operate longer exchanges involving courses (or a portion thereof) in a mobile format.

Applications are encouraged from both ACCC members (Capilano is one) and non-member colleges although the former will normally be given priority in the selection process.

Applications will be accepted on a continuing basis until all provincial quotas have been filled. Since the program is so popular early submission is advised.

The exchanges can occur at any time between September 1/83 and June 31/84.

A small participation fee of $60.00 per participant is charged to help defray the administrative costs of the program.

For application forms and further information please phone (416) 489-7642 or write ACCC - Open House Canada, 110 Eglinton Ave., West, Toronto, Ontario, M4R 1A3.
